

Tri-Development Center of Aiken County, Inc.
Residential Administration Offices

The Residential Administration Offices are located at 105 Lancaster Street in near downtown Aiken. This building also provides office spaces for Tri-Development Center's Fee for Service Money Management Program, our Employment Specialists, and the Early Intervention Department of the Aiken County Board of Disabilities. This building was formerly the site of the Adult Development Center, a day program for adults with disabilities that later joined with the Child Development Center to form Tri-Development Center.
